DX NEWS by DXWORLD.net

KH1, Baker Island DXpedition

UPDATE – We did indeed receive word from one of the organizers. Basically, there is currently no news and the US Government, as yet, hasn't given permission to any groups trying to activate KH1.

August 27 – No further information did materialize in May this year, so we have contacted a few people involved in this announced DXpedition to ascertain if KH1-2017 will indeed happen. QRX..

DL1LLL/MM near North Pole

Lars, DL1LLL is currently aboard Ice-breaker ODEN at 85N (near North Pole). Lars is at sea until 20th September and informs DX-World that he has no idea how active he'll be due to workload, but asks that if you do work DL1LLL/MM or SA3LLL/MM then please spot on the DX cluster. He's using an Iridium phone to update DX-W readers with any news.
